TERM FEES

So guys, hope you enjoyed the introductory offer. Basically, class fees will go up a small bit. Wish we could keep them at the previous level, but there's no way we can develop... Sure listen, you all know the story. Anyway, here is the new schedule of fees for classes.

PPP: Physical Preparation Programme

Following a number of requests, we are considering running this. We would run it at 6pm for 1, 2 or 3 days. Each session would be 60 minutes long, and focus on building up your strength and flexibility. For existing students we are thinking something like €20 per term for 1 session per week (€5 per session), and €40 per term for non-students.

Let me know what you think? info@takingflight.ie or via our Facebook page.

OFFICIAL OPENING: SATURDAY, 7TH FEBRUARY @ 8pm

So let's celebrate, and let's show off what we can do. This is a BYOB (bring your own bottle) event, which will run from 8pm to 10pm. Some of our teachers, friends and students will be performing. Bring your friends, bring your family! Bring a bottle! You must, however, register your intention to come on the following link:
